A Newsletter for Burman University

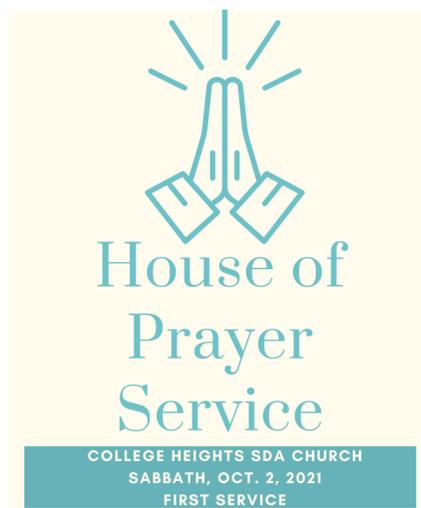

Thursday, 30 September 2021

September 30, 2021 marks the first National Day for Truth and Reconciliation. The day honours the lost children and Survivors of residential schools, their families and communities. Public commemoration of the tragic and painful history and ongoing impacts of residential schools is a vital component of the reconciliation process.

The creation of this federal statutory holiday was through legislative amendments made by Parliament. On June 3, 2021, Bill C-5, An Act to amend the Bills of Exchange Act, the Interpretation Act and the Canada Labour Code (National Day for Truth and Reconciliation) received Royal Assent.

THE SARUK CENTRE FOR LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT

Youth leaders, we are so sorry to announce that due to clarified government restrictions on non-classroom activities, the Saruk Centre retreat will not be held off-campus. You do not need to pack to go. Be sure to check your email for updates. Thank you for your patience and your commitment to leadership!
