

BURMAN RESIDENCE

The residence halls at Burman each provide a unique experience that will contribute to your university life. The university currently operates three residence halls: Lakeview Hall (first and second year students), Maple Hall (third and fourth year students), and Riverton Hall (third and fourth year students as well as some family units.) Each environment promotes study, spiritual nurture, and social interaction.

OUR MISSION

Burman University is a community comprised of a wide variety of backgrounds. As members of this community we find our common centre and unity in Jesus Christ. We seek to honour Him by encouraging each other to develop mentally and spiritually, integrating faith and learning, and encouraging growth in Christ. May you find fulfillment not only academically, but also in the magnificent salvation of Jesus Christ.

The deans and resident assistants are committed to follow Jesus—using the Bible, His Word, as the standard of truth, faith and conduct. Those who choose to become part of the residence community voluntarily agree to accept and uphold the principles and values of this community.

STUDENT DEANS

Individuals in these positions take directives from the deans. These directives must be followed by all students. Student deans have similar authority to that of the deans. They are supported by the deans in their positions in every aspect of their duties. These individuals along with the residence assistants (RA) must receive utmost respect in the same manner it is given to the deans. All rules, regulations, and discipline can be administered by a student dean.

RESIDENT ASSISTANTS

The RA's are assistants to the deans and student deans in the operation of the dormitory. They have the authority to discipline. Students under the age of 18 can only be granted leaves by the main deans. An RA has been assigned to each hall. That RA is responsible for the well being of his/her residents as well as the cleanliness of their area. RA's can't grant late leaves. The deans, student deans, and the RA's that are on duty will be posted under the "Dean on Duty" sign at the front desk as well as on the communication monitor. For assistance contact the posted name on duty.

DESK WORKERS

Desk workers assist the deans, student deans, and RA's with management of day to day activities in the residence hall. Their position requires that they maintain order in the lobby at all times, especially after curfew. Their position also requires they manage an emergency such as a fire or lockdown. Desk Workers have authority to close the mezzanines or instruct people to leave the lobby area. Because of this responsibility, Desk workers require respect in the same manner it is given to an RA or dean. Distracting a desk worker would incur a fine of $20. Please refrain from entering the desk area!

RESERVATIONS

Prospective students planning to stay in the dorm will need to contact one of the deans for more information about residence hall policies and regulations. Students who would like a single room must fill out a request form at the dean's office and are responsible for all the accompanying fees. (Single rooms may be granted at the dean's discretion upon availability.)
