

Record of Summer Community Service for July and August

(Preceding the school term you're enrolling in)

Name: _____

To be completed by student and verified by a recognized authority in the community for the sole purpose of obtaining a scholarship to attend Burman University or Parkview Adventist Academy during the upcoming school term as a full-time student. All entries must describe activities for which no payment or consideration of any type was received by the volunteer; non-profit organizations only; and remember that summer camps are ineligible. If in doubt, check BEFORE you begin by calling the Student Finance Office at 1-800-661-8129. Eligible dates for volunteer service are from July 1 to August 31 of each year with an average of 25 hours per week to a maximum 8 weeks.

Student: Insurance waiver on reverse must be signed prior to beginning any volunteer service.
Service Organization: Please read section on reverse entitled "To the Service Organization."

To the Student:

There is one technical detail involving insurance. Your insurance coverage for any personal damages or injury will come from your volunteer organization or through your provincial health insurance coverage. Burman University/Parkview Adventist Academy is only responsible for providing your scholarship on your enrolment in September, but it is not responsible for any aspect of your volunteer activity. Therefore, a requirement for earning this scholarship is that you sign the following waiver before beginning your volunteer activity.

WAIVER

I understand that the only involvement of Burman University /Parkview Adventist Academy in any volunteer assignment I do to earn a Burman/PAA Service Scholarship is in the provision of the scholarship after I have completed the community service work, and I agree to hold harmless the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventist, the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Canada, and Burman University/Parkview Adventist Academy for any personal damages or injury whatsoever that I may experience in the pursuit of said scholarship through volunteer community service activity.
